

Everybody Rock
Dead Ringer
Lyrics and Music by Joe Bouchard, Dennis Dunaway and Neal Smith

EVERYBODY ROCK

All around the world, gonna shout it out loud as hell
Scream it out, bring down the walls, rock is alive and well
Feel the thunder flash the light, turn it all upside down
Take the world by storm tonight, surrender to this sound

Only if your willing babe
And ready to come along, come on now

Everybody rock
Everybody rock
Are you ready to rock, tell me now
Everybody rock...rock...rock...rock

Young rockin' heros, we'll turn our volume higher
Bang your head and stomp your feet, gonna set this night on fire
The beast has awoken, let's tear this place apart
Dear ringers million kilowatts, will electrocute your heart

Everybody rock
Everybody rock
Are you ready to rock, tell me now
Everybody rock...rock...rock...rock

**\
[guitar solo] [Stop verse]

Do you feel the pounding beat, burnin' inside your brain
Can you understand the words, when the singer's goin insane turn it up and hold on tight, this ride is so bizarre
If ya wanna bring `em to their knees, you gotta burn your guitar!

Everybody rock
Everybody rock
Are you ready to rock, tell me now
Everybody rock...rock...rock...rock

Everybody rock
Everybody rock
Are you ready to rock, tell me now
Everybody rock...rock...rock...rock
